

Boys' Brigade meet the Queen for a Jubilee Message

On Tuesday 14 August 2012, Members of The Boys' Brigade from England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales accompanied by the Brigade President, The Lord Griffiths of Burry Port, met HM The Queen at Balmoral Castle in Scotland.

The young men delivered a message of loyal greeting from the Members of The Boys' Brigade and received Her Majesty's gracious reply.

After leaving Balmoral Castle Her Majesty's Reply started its journey throughout the United Kingdom and Republic of Ireland being carried by Members of The Boys' Brigade.

The baton being used in the relay was previously used in 1935 when The Brigade conveyed its greetings to Her Majesty's grandfather King George V on the occasion of his Silver Jubilee and again in 1951 to King George VI in celebration of the 'Festival of Britain'.

The baton will travel through Scotland before its tour around Northern Ireland, and then via the Republic of Ireland continuing through England and Wales before finally reaching the Brigade Council Meeting in London on Saturday 15 September 2012.
