#MEGHANMISSION

Our very own Megan Brown is heading off on a missions trip to Uganda in July with Girls Brigade Europe as one of four representatives from Northern Ireland.

The focus of the trip is empowering women and girls in a local primary and secondary schools and giving health classes for them while also running a holiday bible type club and bible study with some local ladies.

To support Megan with fundraising, the Mission Committee will be serving Ulster Frys on Saturday 27th April between 8.30am & 10am. Megan will provide more information on her mission trip on that day. This fundraiser is voluntary donation only.

If you can make it for breakfast, please put your name on the sheet in the vestibule, to enable us to know numbers for catering. Hope you can make it!
(See below)

Big breakfast for Uganda
Saturday 27th April from 8:30am- 10am in the new halls.

Come and enjoy a cooked breakfast in aid of fundraising for Megan's Mission trip to Uganda with a team from Girls Brigade Europe. She will be working in schools with all ages of young people to share the good news and practical classes on gender equality and hygiene. Come along to the breakfast to hear Megan share more about her trip! Donations would be greatly appreciated toward Megan's trip.
